Sir:

DECLARATION UNDER § 1.131

I declare as follows:

1. I am the inventor who, on December 1, 2000, filed the above-identified application. At the time of such invention, I was an employee of Hewlett-Packard Company.

2. Prior to November 20, 2000, the filing date of the application from which the publication of U.S. Patent Application Publication No. US 2002/0099791 A1 resulted, I conceived my invention, and diligently worked toward reducing my invention to practice, as demonstrated by the HP Invention Disclosure, dated May 9, 2000, evidenced by Exhibit 1, which is attached to this declaration.

3. Exhibit 1 demonstrates a printing method which includes providing a website having a web page accessible via a browser program, providing printable content that is associated with the website but not displayed on the web page, providing a print activator on the web page to initiate printing without operation of the print browser controls, and in response to activation of the print activation, printing the printable content.

4. Exhibit 1 also demonstrates the use of printable content which is not formatted for display by the web browser, but rather is specially formatted for output in printed hard copy form.

5. All acts set forth herein and/or relied upon for the purpose of establishing invention prior to November 29, 2000 were carried out in the United States.

6. I declare that all statements made herein of my knowledge are true and all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true. These statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment or both under § 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code. I understand that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issuing therefrom.
